A regulation for the return of Isaac J. Osburn to Missouri on a charge of having transported Sylvia May Hendricks, a telephone girl, from that state to a home for immoral purposes, was signed today by Governor Johnson. 7/15-1914
After Osburn had advised with the girl he desired her, and was reconciled with his wife, with whom he conducted a restaurant for a short time in Broderick.
The father of the girl swore out a complaint and Osburn will be taken back to Missouri to face the charge.
